dutch architect cornelis van eesteren served as president of ciam from 1930 to 1947 this volume about cornelis van eesteren 1897 1988 and ciam fills a hiatus in the existing literature the main focus is ciam s legendary fourth congress about the functional city which was held in the summer of 1933 and chaired by van eesteren there is special consideration for the underexposed but vital contribution of the dutch ciam group and the town planner cornelis van eesteren the leitmotif in this narrative is the principle of collectivity the avant garde ideal of concerted action as the basis for the creation of a thoroughly contemporary human habitat the evolution of ciam is traced using the abundance of archived material that reveals its inner workings delving beneath the surface of the official history affords insight into the quest for a unique position role and methodology within the architectural and urban development spectrum the book examines the positioning of ciám during its early years before probing more deeply into the pursuit of collectivity and the idea of ciám as a cooperative which was primarily embraced by its dutch and swiss members the city analyses conducted by ciám members for the 1933 congress made an important contribution to comparative town planning which was developed in europe during the early decades of the 20th century after 1936 ciám found itself in a crisis from which it never truly recovered despite a post war revival and certainly not in the wake of van eesteren s influential presidency the rapidly expanding association became a global institution in the 1950s but its influence was waning and the rebellious team 10 group would subsequently play a greater role design has an increasingly high profile figures like philippe starck are as venerated and well known as more traditional artists but where the literature on fine art is vast design is still comparatively ill served this encyclopedia provides an account of the still largely unknown story of design
